MISSIONARY RALLY FULL OF INSPIRATION

Able Addresses by Missionaries And Others, Banquet And Stereopticon
Views Make Up Fine Program.

The Foreign Missionary Rally at the First Christian church Wednesday was full of inspiration and helpfulness to all who attended.

Rev. E. M. Allen, one of the secretaries of "The Foreign Christian Missionary Society" was the leader. He was assisted by Rev. Mr. Shaw, a missionary from China, and Rev. Mr. Hedges, a missionary from the Congo-Africa.

The rally began at 10:30 with a delightful devotional address by Mr. Allen, followed by a strong address by Mr. Shaw, on conditions leading up to the present revolution in China, and the part taken by the missionaries which led to these conditions. This was really a great address and should have been heard by all the people. Mr. Hedges told the wonderful story of Africa's redemption "The largest Sunday School in the world, is at Bolege, Africa. Less than twenty years ago most of the present teachers were naked savages, some of them cannibals."

The afternoon session began at 2 o'clock. Mr. Shaw continued his story of missionary achievement in China, and Mr. Hedges, the thrilling recital of the sufferings and sacrifices the native Christians endured as they went out as evangelists for the conversion of other tribes.

"Every nine members support the tenth as an evangelist," Mr. Allen gave a strong address on "Missionary Methods in the Bible Schools."

At 6:15 the church gave a delightful banquet to the men of the church. The ministers of the city were invited as guests. After the banquet a really great address, one of the strongest ever given in this city, was delivered by Mr. Allen. At 7:30 the closing service was held. Stereopticon views of the mission stations, and moving pictures of actual scenes of the mission field were thrown on the canvas and commented on by the missionaries.

The audiences during the day were not as large as they should have been. Those who remained away missed a great treat. The people of Winchester who are interested in great world-movement would have been delighted with the addresses of Wednesday.

Several crops sold at $14.80 to $16.50, one crop averaging $13.86.

Six baskets of old tobacco brought 22 to 27 cents, the average being 25 1-2 cents.

A great many new baskets sold for 20 to 26 cents.

Orme and McDonald, of Clark county, sold a thin crop without much color for $17.60.

Joel Hart's crop averaged $14.18. Low grades, dark and frozen sold higher than at any past sale.

B. A. Tracy sold several baskets of green and frozen at $4 to $4.30.

R. A. Scobee House.

The tobacco sales were opened about 1 p. m. at Mr. R. A. Scobee's house with about 75,000 pounds on the floor, of medium grade.

There was a large crowd present and bidding was active and market much stronger.

Farmers were well pleased with prices. Up to 2:15 the prices ranged from $3 to $22.

The next sales will be held Monday.

AN APPEAL FOR THE POOR

"A Director" of the Associated Charities Tells of Pitiful Cases of Destitution And Makes Plea For Aid.

To sit by our cozy fires and enjoy the conveniences of our comfortable homes, during this extreme weather, one must be very short of gratitude not to wonder how the needy of our town are faring.

I wish the thoughtless ones might have been present at the Tuesday afternoon meeting and heard of some of the wretched conditions, right at your door. I am sure it would quicken the heart and loosen the purse strings.

Miss Peddicord reported a case of dire destitution that she visited only Tuesday morning. When the thermometer registered zero, she found a miserable home in "Hungry Hollow" where were four little motherless children, barefooted, for clothing only little calico dresses; these four little beings huddled about a scanty fire; the father unable to find work for the past two weeks.

We have but to bring these pictures home to our own fire side, where in our imagination we may better understand "Am I my Brother's Keeper?"

The Associated Charities is one of the greatest institutions of Winchester. When you give through them you know, only the worthy receive the benefits. The weather is never too cold or the snow too deep to keep our rating Secretary, Miss Peddicord from making a thorough investigation of the conditions before giving assistance.

The managers of "The Lyric," Messrs. Moss and Phillips, have kindly offered to donate to the Associated Charities half of their proceeds Friday afternoon and evening, February 9. Good moving pictures are promised. Come and the Associated Charities will appreciate your presence, your 10 cents, and you will be helping a very worthy cause.

A DIRECTOR.

SUCCESSOR TO JUSTICE HARLAN

President Taft is Expected to Send Names of Charles Nagel to Senate
In a Few Days.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The existing vacancy on the Supreme Court bench probably will be filled by the appointment of Secretary of Commerce and Labor Charles Nagel, of St. Louis.

President Taft is expected to send the nomination of Mr. Nagel to the Senate within a few days. United States Judge William C. Hook, of Kansas, who until Tuesday night was most prominently mentioned for the vacancy, is said to have been eliminated from further consideration at an hour's session of the cabinet Wednesday.

All of the lawyers in the cabinet, except Mr. Nagel, were present and afterward it was learned that the President had made clear his intention of appointing his Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

This report was so generally credited Wednesday night that rumor was busy with a possible successor to Mr. Nagel in the cabinet. Louis Marshall of New York, and Oscar Rosenwald, of Chicago, were mentioned among those who would be considered by President Taft.

Judge Hook's name was scratched from the President's list Wednesday, almost at the eleventh hour. This action was said to be due to his concurrence in a "Jim Crow" law decision in an Oklahoma railroad case. Both the President and Attorney General Wickesham are understood to hold the opinion that Judge Hook "went too far" in this case.

CINCINNATI'S BIG AUTOMOBILE SHOW

Will Begin in Two More Weeks, The Initial Night Being Set For February 19.

Only two brief more weeks and Cincinnati's Automobile Show throws open its doors—the initial night being set for Monday, February 19. A whole army of decorators has been crowded into Music Hall, which bids fair to blossom as the rose when the work of embellishment is complete. The numerous beautiful specimens of motor cars intended for display are arriving in Cincinnati, and very shortly will be placed in position, the committee-in-charge being determined that the exhibit shall be as nearly perfect as possible on the opening date.

The week just past has recorded consummation of a plan that will be particularly welcome to the great throng of outside visitors who are promising their attendance.

This aims at nothing less than a comprehensive and accurate display of maps, drawings and other visible devices, calculated to place on view the great work being accomplished in Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia and Indiana in the way of securing better roads and public highways for benefit of the suburban communities.

Invitation was sent by the Automobile Dealers' Association to the governors of the Cincinnati Automobile Club, asking them to occupy a special booth at the show, in any manner they saw fit. The club responded enthusiastically by accepting, then set out to carry into effect the scheme above outlined.

The Automobile Club is the third largest similar organization in the United States, consisting of nearly 1,500 members, and has made itself of considerable force and power in motor circles of the state and nation. It has been responsible for the placing of road signs in Hamilton county to the value of $3,000; and is paramourly concerned over the matter of good roads for the whole middle west, believing that the farmer element, as well as that of the city, will profit incalculably thereby.

The club intends arranging a cozy booth at the Cincinnati Auto Show, where it will present examples of its work in sign placing together with profile drawings of roads, as they are being planned for this territory. It will have a special representative present always to welcome the visitor coming to the Queen City from sections outside.

EVIDENCE IN PEONAGE CASE

Will Probably Be Closed on Thursday.—Big Court Room is Packed With Spectators.

London, Ky., Feb. 7.—By Thursday at time for adjournment all the evidence in the trial of the men charged with peonage in the United States District Court will probably be before the jury. Ever since the trial began the big court room has been packed with spectators. Just before the noon adjournment Wednesday, District Attorney Edwin P. Morrow announced that the Government had closed its evidence in chief. This was a surprise as there were a large number of Government witnesses present who had not been introduced. Several of those, however, may be introduced later in rebuttal.

After a long conference of the attorneys for the defendants a motion was entered for peremptory instructions upon the showing of the Government. This motion Judge Cochran overruled as to four of the defendants, but sustained as to Dr. Pitney Phillips, Charles Gardner and Ed. Smith, who were discharged by the court.

The other three defendants were introduced and all denied that the negroes were whipped or held because of alleged debts due the contractor, but assigned various reasons for whipping and returning them. Their theory was that those who were brought back on leaving were returned to answer some misdemeanor charges and that those who were whipped received their punishment for violations of the contractors' rules and misconduct of one kind or another.

Judge Cochran has permitted no delays or quibbling, but has pushed the trial as rapidly as possible.

WINCHESTER AND CLARK COUNTY.

On the dividing ridge between Licking and Kentucky rivers, is the beautiful city of Winchester. It is in Clark, one of the foremost agricultural counties of the state. Corn, wheat, hay, hemp and tobacco are produced in great abundance. The eastern section of the county, that is, the extreme eastern end is in the foot hills of the great Appalachian mountain system.

This part of the county could be very highly developed as a fruit growing region. The city is entirely surrounded by beautiful bluegrass pastures, on which are grazed herds of cattle and sheep, many horses and mules. Also many hogs are raised. The ground on which the city is built is just rolling enough to be attractive and show off the building to great advantage.

Wonderful advancements have been made in the last few years. The last census showed a population of 7,156 and there is easily sufficient outlying territory that should be included to swell the grand total of 10,000.

No city surpasses Winchester in commercial and transportation facilities. There are two grand trunk lines. The Chesapeake and Ohio connects westward with the main lines of the state and extending eastward to New York City. The Louisville and Nashville railroad system has purchased and extended the Lexington and Eastern to Whitesburg, in Letcher county. It is now an evident fact that the road from Paris will be double tracked and a new line built eastward through Irvine. Winchester will certainly be the western terminal and this means the shops will be built here furnishing employment to many laborers. The L. and N. will then be prepared to carry both passenger and freight traffic in all directions from this city as it will be the crossing point.

Winchester will then be in touch by rail with all the timber and coal regions of eastern Kentucky. All of this with a new government building will rank Winchester with the most prosperous cities of the country.

The loose leaf tobacco market launched here this time bids fair to be of great profit and convenience to both city and county. Therefore the prophecy, a more thoroughly equipped city and the adoption of the "Winchester Idea—Hustle."

Anderson, deceased, will on Saturday, February 17th, 1912, at 2 o'clock p. m., rent at the Courthouse door in Winchester, Ky., to the highest bidder for a term of eleven months, beginning March 1st, 1912, and ending February 1st, 1913, a certain farm belonging to the estate of A. H. Anderson, deceased, as hereinafter described.

A certain tract of land situated near Kiddville in Clark county, Kentucky, known as the Donahoe tract, containing 170 acres of land, on the east side of the Indian Fields and Kiddville pike. It is understood that it also contains a part of what is known as the T. J. Halley land, the same aggregating about 170 acres, and being the same tract occupied in the year 1911 by Milton Pace. It has on it a two-story frame dwelling with outbuildings and stock barn.

About 70 acres of this land was in cultivation during the year 1911. This same land is to be cultivated again, the renter having the privilege of putting it all in corn, or 60 acres in corn and 10 acres in tobacco, as he may elect, it being understood, however, that there is no tobacco barn upon this tract of land. The rented will have to furnish saw.

The above tract shall be rented by the parcel, and not by the acre, it being understood that the statement of acreage is merely an estimate.

The successful bidder shall execute to the undersigned Trustees note with approved security, payable to them, and due on December 15th, 1912, bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum from maturity until paid.

The Trustees, or anyone designated by them, have the right in the Fall of 1912 to enter upon the leased premises to sow any field in small grain, and are to make any repairs they may deem necessary.

The Trustees do not agree to build any new fencing or do any repairing of any kind, and said Trustees are not to be held responsible for any loss sustained by tenant occasioned by injuries to crops by stock or any other cause.

All corn shall be cut and shocked by October 15th, 1912, and the tenant shall keep stock out of the stubble fields, and cut all weeds on leased premises.

The said Trustees are directed to reduce to writing the contract of renting with tenant, and incorporate all the terms and conditions herein set out. WITNESSETH Given under our hands as Trustees, this 7th day of February, 1912. W. R. SPHAR and LEE EVANS, Trustees. (Thurs-Mon-Thurs)

LEXINGTON TO LOSE GEOLOGICAL SURVEY

House Passes Bill Transferring It To Frankfort.—Newcomb Banking Bill Passed By Senate.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 8.—Lexington will lose the Geological Survey if the bill which passed the House Wednesday becomes a law though the State University will retain possession of the specimens in the museum at the University, one of the most valuable mineral collections in the United States. Only 12 votes were cast against the bill, which was one of those advocated by Governor McCreary in his message to the General Assembly. The House Wednesday also passed the bill of Representative Berry, of Owensboro, prohibiting minors from entering saloons. It got 77 votes and none was cast against it.

The Bosworth bill, No. 86, in the Senate, providing a vote on a constitutional amendment, allowing convicts to work on public roads, was favorably reported by the committee and advanced to the calendar.

School Bill Passed.

One of Mr. Pogue's school bills, No. 103, was next discussed. It reduces the number of children required for a school district from forty to twenty-five and amends the Sullivan law of 1908 curing small defects.

The House went into committee of the whole, and State Superintendent Hamlette explained the purposes of the framers of the bill. It was passed.

Governor McCreary Wednesday named as members of the State Board of Equalization J. T. Penick, of Todd county; M. J. Meagher, of Frankfort; John F. Howes, of Paintsville, and T. P. Craig, of Louisville.

Three of former Governor's Wilson's appointees hold over and complete the board. The Democratic majority of the board will meet Friday and organize, electing a chairman and three secretaries.

Little Done in the House

Little was done in the House. When the session began, there was a hum of excitement, due to the interest in the prison reform bill, which was a special order for 11 o'clock. At that hour, Representative Hamilton, of Frankfort, called the attention of the House to the fact that the Senate had on Tuesday passed a similar bill. A motion was adopted, making the bill a special order of the House for Tuesday next at 130 o'clock. By that time the Senate bill will be before the House.

A number of petitions were presented to the House asking the passage of a law permitting farmers' organizations to use the common school houses for meetings. Such a bill is now pending.

Mr. Holland, of Shelby, suggested and the House referred to the Attorney General for an opinion, the question of the constitutionality of the proposed tax to build public roads. The point applies to House bills 63, 64, 171 and 179.

Teachers' Election Unchanged

After two hours of discussion the House decided to leave the election of teachers with the Division Boards of Education, instead of placing their selection in the County Board, as was urged and adopted the bill. It received 77 votes with 2 against it.

Mr. Wilson made a speech against the bill in explanation of his vote. He declared it has been the history of the Kentucky Legislature that it changes its school laws every session, before the people have a chance to become acquainted with the old law. Mr. Wilson and Mr. Keller cast the two votes against the bill.

At 2:30 o'clock the House adjourned.

The Senate passed the Newcomb Bill creating a Department of Banking. It provides for a Bank Commissioner at an annual salary of $31,600, a Deputy Commissioner at an annual salary of $2,400, three Examiners at annual salaries of $2,000 each and $2,400 annually for clerk hire.

The Commissioner is to be appointed by the Governor and will appoint the subordinate officers who must be selected from the two dominant parties in the State.

There was a bitter fight on some of the provisions of the bill and several of them prevailed by only one vote.

Senator Bertram contended that the provision of the bill requiring that the deputy bank commissioner and an equal number of bank examiners be of different political party from the bank commissioner was unreasonable, and should not be permitted. The chief objection to the bill found by Senator Bertram was concerning the qualifications of the officers appointed by the Governor.

The most striking feature of the bill is the provision which gives the commission authority to close any bank found unsafe.

After the amendments were voted down the bill passed 34 to 2.

Thomas Offers Rule Changes.

Senator Thomas, ranking member of the Rules Committee and following the instructions of the committee offered a number of resolutions changing the rules. Senators are allowed but two minutes to explain their votes on questions during the roll call. This rule applies only when the previous question is not ordered.

Senator Graham contended that there never before had been a rule to prevent any member from explaining his vote.

Senator Brock made some cutting remarks about the responsibility of the action of the Senate being on the Democrats, to which President McDermott said he played no favorites.

Senator Huffaker explained that it was a question of personal privilege to explain his vote, and that he had never heard of any body preventing a member from explaining his vote. The amendment proposed was rejected.

I INVITE EVERY WOMAN

Every woman is invited to consult our Staff of Physicians, Surgeons and Specialists, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., by letter at my expense—R. V. PIERCE, M. D.

There is every reason why women should not trust their delicate constitutions in the hands of unskilled persons. It requires a thorough medical education to appreciate and understand the female organism. There is every reason why she should write a specialist.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For over-worked "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nerve "Favorite Prescription" is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, fainting spells, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the distinctly feminine organs. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is devised and put up by a physician of vast experience in the treatment of woman's maladies. Its ingredients have the endorsement of leading physicians in all schools of practice.

The "Favorite Prescription" is known everywhere as the standard remedy for diseases of women and has been so regarded for the past forty years and more.

Accept no secret nostrum in place of "Favorite Prescription"—a medicine of known composition, with a record of forty years of satisfaction behind it. Sold by all Druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

THE GROWTH OF ELECTRICITY

Elimination of Waste is Problem Which Every Modern Business Man is Trying to Solve.

The elimination of waste is the problem which every modern business man is trying to solve. Man has learned how to generate gigantic power by the use of running water, steam and gas, but much of it has hitherto gone to waste on account of the difficulty of subdividing it. When only one or two machines in a factory are in use, it is often necessary to expend enough power to drive every machine in the shop. Until the development of electric generators and motors it was impossible to subdivide power, except by the use of separate engines which made the cost prohibitive. Electricity has proved that it can divide power as can nothing else.

The power required to drive the line shafting and belts in a factory where the motive power is all in one source is about equal to the power required to drive all the machines in the shop at their maximum output; that is, if all the tools working simultaneously at maximum output require 100 h. p., the belts and shafting will require about 100 h. p. more, and this power, which is all lost in friction must be supplied all the time, even though only a few of the machines are working. On the other hand, if, in the same shop, each tool is equipped with a motor, only about 43 h. p. will be lost in transmission from the motive power of the dynamo to the tools when they are all working at maximum output; that is, 143 h. p. is consumed and 100 h. p. or 70 per cent of this is supplied to the tools, against 50 per cent with belts and shafting. But, in machine-shop work, it is found that so many machines are always idle or working on light load that only about 30 per cent of the total capacity of all the machines is in use at the same time; that is, the load factor is approximately 30 per cent. With line shafting and belts, the total power supplied to the shop is then 130 h. p., of which 30 h. p. or 23 per cent is used by the tools; with individual motor drive, the losses decrease approximately as the load. At 30 per cent load, the loss would be 30 per cent of 43 h. p., or 13 h. p., and the total power is 43 h. p., of which 30 h. p. or 70 per cent is used. In other words, the individual motor drive, under ordinary working conditions, is more than three times as efficient as the line shaft and belt drive.

However, it would not be usually economical to install a small motor on each of a number of small machines; better results are often obtained by driving a number of small machines in a group from a comparatively short line shaft driven by a larger motor.

FOR MAINTENANCE OF CAMP DANIEL BOONE

Committee Raises $600 For Noble Cause, Looking to Uplifting Influences for Boys of State.

The committee appointed to secure subscriptions for the maintenance of "Camp Daniel Boone" for the boys of Kentucky, have met with success, and already almost $600 has been subscribed.

The Camp Idea

"Civilization has been making of the world a hothouse. Man's instinct of self-preservation rebels; hence the appeal for the return to the simple life that is growing loud."

Every normal boy loves to camp out, to live in the great out of doors; he loves to hunt, climb trees and fences, tramp through the woods, run, yell, swim, wear as few clothes as possible and absorb plenty of fresh air and sunshine. It is well that he loves to do these things, for thus he lays that strong physical foundation that enables him to cope successfully with the problems of life.

The Young Men's Christian Association has been a prisoner in providing the Christian boys' camp which gives to our boys such recreation and Christian training under ideal conditions. During last year the associations of America held scores of such camps, bringing together thousands of boys.

Camp Daniel Boone.

One of the finest services rendered to the boyhood of Central Kentucky during the past year was the State Y. M. C. A. Boys' Camp, held on the Kentucky river at Brooklyn Bridge. There were in attendance 117 boys and 18 adult leaders; a total of 135. These boys came from sixteen towns of Central Kentucky. Each paid a nominal fee of $7.00, which barely covered the running expense of the camp.

The activities each day at camp from the time the rising bugle sounded at 6:30 until taps at 9 p. m. were so correlated as to secure for the boys a maximum of good and fun.

The regular day's program consisted of the following in the order named: Morning exercises, plunge in river, breakfast, morning prayers, camp cleaning, recreation from 9:30 to 11:30, morning swim, dinner, recreation from 1:30 to 5:30, Bible class, camp fire; lights out at 9 p. m. During the swimming hours, the water was carefully patrolled by a leader in a boat to see that no mishap took place. Recreation consisted of rowing, fishing, hikes, baseball, tennis, etc.

Following are some of the results. Every boy attended Bible class every day; two personal purity talks were given during each period of camp—one to older and one to younger boys. These meetings beginning immediately after supper, in every case lasted until after dark, so interested were the boys, and so anxious were they to be set right on the many problems of their life.

The camp physician did excellent work in this connection, especially in the matter of talking to boys personally. Other features of the camp were First Aid to the Injured talk and demonstration on How to Rescue and Resuscitate the Drowning; and the swimming class which taught 40 boys how to swim.

Nature study, the camp library and camp fire stores and debate were some of the educational features. Field Day exercises came at the close of each camping period consisting of running, jumping and boat racing, most every boy in camp taking part. One the last night of camp the boys encircled the camp fire, and clasping hands, sang "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" and "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." Thus was the camp impressively closed.

The towns represented and the number from each were: Frankfort 33; Winchester, 17; Lexington, 17; Danville, 12; Paris, 9; Versailles, 7; Georgetown, 7; Corbin, 3; Carlisle, 3; Berea, 2; Crestwood, 2; Nicholasville, 1; Harrodsburg, 1; Morehead, 1; Covington, 1; Lagrange, 1.

The Need.

The outstanding need of Camp Daniel Boone is a permanent and a larger equipment. There is no fixed camping site and moving from place to place each year causes a large depreciation in the value of equipment on account of wear and tear and loss incident to such removal. Change of location also means high price for rental of grounds and the expenditure of money for preparation of site, tennis court, baseball grounds, etc. The above items of all of which would be obviated by the proposed improvement. In addition to the purchase of grounds, a dining-room, chapel and lodge should be erected. With this equipment we would not have to turn away boys, as was the case last year, but there would be accommodation for at least 300. It would also provide a place where workers with boys in Sunday School, Y. M. C. A. and church could meet for conference. It has been the ambition of the Committee to be able to give the conference training idea great prominence among the activities at Camp Daniel Boone.

The Plan.

At the last meeting of the Advisory Committee in Lexington the following plan of raising $5,000.00 to permanently equip Camp Daniel Boone was unanimously adopted.

In each of about twenty towns of Central Kentucky a Boys' Work Institute is to be held. The aim of this institute is to arouse interest in boys' work in these towns, as well as to acquaint the people with the plans of the Committee regarding Camp Daniel Boone. Funds will not be collected at any of the institute meetings.

However, following this institute people will be called upon personally to help. In this manner the Committee hopes to have "A Boy and Religious Forward Movement" that will have as one of its results the placing of the camp on such a basis as to be for years the Mecca for the boys and boys' workers of Central Kentucky. Just as the fruition of these plans will come from the aroused interest in boys' work, so will this camp be the stimulus that will arouse interest in our boys more and more as the years go by and its efficiency increases.

Many cannot be put into any enterprise of more practical and far-reaching good than this institution, which seeks to build up our boys to well-rounded life. Camp Daniel Boone is conducted by the State Executive Committee, Kentucky Young Men's Christian Association, of which J. C. Acheson is Chairman; S. W. Greene, Treasurer, and Philo C. Dix, State Secretary, with the co-operation of the Central Kentucky Boys' Work Advisory Committee.

Mr. Rice was one of the very few to receive the Chautauqua salute last summer. 2-8-4t

OTHER UNIVERSITIES BEHIND STATE PROBE

Presidents Crossfield and Hitt Report to be Backing Charges.—Secrecy Criticized.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 8.—The first information to leak out of the investigation into matters of the State University at Lexington, which is being conducted here behind closed doors, came late Wednesday night when it was said that the principal charges against the university are being made by President Crossfield, of Transylvania University, and President Hitt, of Central University, which are that the officials of State University are violating a technicality in the law governing the distribution of county appointments, and thereby causing an injury to Transylvania and Central Universities.

From the report that leaked out of the room in which the investigation is being conducted, it is supposed that Presidents Crossfield and Hitt, both of whom are before the investigating committee, have charged that more appointments have been granted students from certain counties than was lawful under the act governing such appointments.

They are supposed also to have charged the State University officials with having freely distributed appointment, as an inducement to increase the matriculation in that university, and to have charged that such action was not only a technical violation of the law, but also that it was working an injustice on Transylvania, Central and other small institutions not endowed by state funds.

KENTUCKY TUBERCULOSIS LEGISLATION, 1912.

Senate bill No. 140, House bill No. 335, concerning tuberculosis provide for the following:

1. The creation of a Tuberculosis Commission consisting of seven (7) persons, two (2) of which shall be registered physicians, all of whom shall be appointed by the Governor.
2. The members of the Commission receive no compensation for their services.
3. The powers and duties of the Commission shall be co-extensive with the state, and its objects shall be as follows:

1. The study of tuberculosis in all its forms and relations. To secure and disseminate information with reference to tuberculosis, to promote and carry on a campaign of education with reference thereto, and in general to pursue any other activities with reference to informing the public as to the nature of tuberculosis, its dangers, and the means whereby its spread may be prevented.

2. Investigation of the prevalence of tuberculosis in the state of Kentucky, and the collecting and publishing of useful information.

3. Securing the proper legislation for the relief and prevention of tuberculosis.

4. Co-operation with the public authorities, state and local boards of health, the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, medical societies, and other organizations in approved measures adopted for the prevention of the disease.

5. To encourage the establishment throughout the state of Kentucky of local associations for the purpose of undertaking in their particular localities of work proposed to be carried on by this Commission.

6. Encouragement of adequate provision for consumptives by the establishment of sanatoria, hospitals, dispensaries and otherwise.

7. For the purpose of carrying on the above work said Commission shall receive an annual appropriation from the state of a sum not exceeding $15,000.

8. The bill further provides that the Fiscal Court of one or a group of adjoining counties, may at its discretion, form a tuberculosis district for the erection of a tuberculosis sanatorium, and levy a tax for the erection and maintenance thereof.

9. If, however, the Fiscal Court fails or refuses to create said tuberculosis district, the voters of one county or of a group of counties may at a regular election decide by vote whether or not such county or group of counties shall become a tuberculosis district for the erection of a tuberculosis sanatorium. If the majority of the voters vote "yes" the sanatorium shall be erected. If the majority vote "no" the sanatorium shall not be erected.

10. The management of any county sanatoria erected under this Act shall be vested in a local board of trustees, consisting of seven (7) persons, who shall make their own laws and regulations for the management of said sanatoria.

11. It is provided, however, that the Board of Tuberculosis Commissioners shall have power of visitation over any sanatoria erected under this Act, thus assuring a certain standard of uniformity in construction and efficiency in management.

12. If this bill is passed it will put Kentucky among the leading states in the fight against consumption, and be the direct means of saving thousands of our fellow citizens from unnecessary suffering, distress and death.

13. It will also give counties the privilege of building a sanatoria, a number of them being anxious to do so, and bring no hardship or burden upon any other county that is not directly benefited by the erection of said sanatoria.

SNOW—FLOWERS

The many beautiful white snows which have recently fallen and the remembrance of the noble life and character of that gentle woman whose spirit winged its flight and whose body was laid away during the Christmas week, have suggested to me the thought, that perhaps after all, these pure, white, beautiful snows are but the flowers brought by the Angels from Heaven to the graves of our friends and loved ones.

The gentle woman to whom I refer, had many of the duties and cares of a mother thrust upon her when she was a young girl still in her teens; she lavished upon her father such tender care and affection as brought peace and happiness to him in his declining years. When the father was gone, a brother needed her watchful care and nursing, and they were gladly given without stint until the end. To the invalid sister who was sick so long, she gave constant care and tender watchful love, until she too, passed over the river to join those who had gone before and "to rest beneath the shade of the trees."

Her whole life was one of noble self-sacrifice and devotion to duty, and she met each responsibility as it came with love and fortitude.

Taken as she was in the very flower of her womanhood, her beautiful mortal career has been ended, but long will she live and her influence be felt in the hearts and lives of her friends and loved ones. The children, the husband and the loved ones will miss her very much.

And now we, who knew her, bow our heads in respectful memory, and as the beautiful snows fall, join with nature and with the Angels from Heaven in carrying pure white snow-flowers to her grave.

17. FIRST LA GRIPPE, THEN BRONCHITIS.

Such was the case with Mrs. W. S. Bailey, McCreary, Ky. "My wife was taken down with a severe attack of la grippe, which ran into bronchitis. She coughed as tho' she had consumption and could not sleep at night. The Doctor's medicine gave her no relief and I was advised to try Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. The first bottle gave her so much relief that she continued using it and three bottles effected a permanent cure." Mr. W. S. Bailey says he is prepared to answer all inquiries promptly.

Advertising Talks

LOCAL MEDIUM IS THE BEST

No Substitute for Home Newspaper for Good Advertising, Declares Big Trade Journal.

There is no substitute for newspaper advertising when the object is the expansion of retail business, according to the American Lumberman, a trade publication issued at Chicago. The editor of the Lumberman declares that the local newspaper is the only medium that will render ineffective the seductive lure of the mail order copy with which the average farm paper is crammed.

"When the dealer is looking for business he wants a real medium that will carry a real message," says the Lumberman. "That medium is his local newspaper. By test there is no substitute for newspaper advertising when the object is the expansion of retail business. The local paper is the one medium that, properly used, will offset the influence of the catalogue and that will render ineffective the seductive lure of the mail order copy."

"Newspaper advertising is one of the first real steps in successful merchandising. But it must be of consistent character, planned and executed with such deliberation that its object will be clear. The advertiser who does not know the purpose of his own campaign can not expect others to understand it. Dealers who will take the time to study advertising methods, particularly those employed by their successful mail order competitors, will find there the best available text book. The very success of these methods evidences their worth."

"The newspaper manager is an invaluable source of advice and help to the advertiser. His business depends upon the pulling power of his paper's advertising columns. He is keenly interested in helping his patrons. He invariably is willing to criticize and advise the novice and generally knows his business."

"Finally, the efficacy of retail advertising depends in a large measure on 'keeping everlastingly at it.' The inconsistent advertiser may get results. The steady advertiser will."

New Method Best.

The unusual success of the state fair, remarks the Oskaloosa (Ia.) Herald, for the past three or four years has demonstrated the superiority of newspaper advertising over the old methods of expensive lithographs and useless hand bills. For years the management sent out of the state for the bulk of its printing, and the newspapers naturally kicked on the proposition but the management went on for years doing the same thing, and counting on the newspapers to boost the fair as a matter of state pride. The limit was finally reached and the agricultural department awoke to the fact that they were carrying out a misguided policy. Finally, about five years ago, the management wheeled about and decided to spend about half of their appropriation for advertising with the leading papers of the state, and omit some of the expensive calendars and lithographs. The success of the change was amazing, and since that time more money each year has been spent with the newspapers, bringing a corresponding increase in business at the fairs.

Points on Good Advertising.
Advertising is a great help, and no man who hopes for success in business can afford to dispense with it, but there must be exertion on his part as well. This naturally comes to the tradesman who believes in liberal use of printer's ink. There must also be neatness of surroundings, taste in the proper display of goods, accommodating clerks and cheerfulness of intercourse, even though no bargain and sale is effected. Ordinarily all these essentials will be found in the store that liberally advertises, for after spending money in this way proper recompense will not be forthcoming if slovenliness and indifference and uncongeniality prevail. Keep all surroundings and conditions in conformity to systematic and persevering advertising and the outcome eventually will spell success.

The reason your rival can afford to advertise is because he advertises.

He Was the Doer.

"So you want a position in my firm?" said the fat man with the thick gold chain. "Well, what were you in your last job?"

"A doer, sir," answered the sad eyed applicant.

"What's that?" asked the employer.

"Well, sir," said the sad eyed one, "I was the doer, and the rest were the tellers. When my gov'nor wanted a thing done he would tell the cashier, the cashier would tell it to his assistant, his assistant would tell it to the chief clerk and the chief clerk would tell it to me."

"And what would happen then?"

"Well, sir," replied the sad eyed applicant, "as I hadn't anyone to mention it to, I'd—do it."

MUCH INTEREST IS MANIFESTED

In Confederate Reunion to be Held in Macon, Ga., in May.—Railroads to Make Contributions.

Macon, Ga., Feb. 7.—Much interest has been manifested and many inquiries have been made not only by the people of Macon but those of this section of the South as to what the five railroads leading into the city have done in financially aiding Macon in her plans for the big reunion in May. It will be remembered that Little Rock was given $5,000 by her two big roads, in order to assist her in raising funds for the reunion there last year, these two lines patriotically proportioning the amount and donating $2,500 each to the general fund.

The citizens of the Magnetic Center City are expecting great things from the five lines leading into her limits as a consequence of the action of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific and the St. Louis and Iron Mountain lines at Little Rock. The city has always been generous in its granting of privileges to the roads coming in to her limits and it is not unlikely that within the next few days the roads will return the courtesy of these favors by proportional donations to the reunion fund.

This reunion will mean great things for these roads not only in May but in the years to come inasmuch as this period will mark general homecoming for the entire southeastern section and the advent of many prospecting home-seekers from all points of the country.

Inquiry has been made as to what was expected of the roads, and it developed that all of the roads had been communicated with for contributions and had signified their willingness to contribute, provided the fund contributed should be made proportionate. It is extremely likely that some definite agreement will be reached by these roads within the next few days and thus will be added a substantial increase to the general fund subscribed by parties to reunion purposes. The fund now at hand for such purposes aggregates $53,000.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

THE SABBATH DAY

To The Editor of the News:—

I am glad you have arranged it so that any citizen can adjust the affairs of the community, by calling attention to the discrepancies through this column. I usually read with a good deal of interest such articles as strike at the root of things immoral, or practices that lead to immorality.

Much that has been written has without doubt done good, and practices have been corrected just by calling the attention of the public to these practices. Especially is this true when it is shown that many of the questionable customs of our time, and of our city life are due to the demands made by an unthinking public.

For instance, I will give you an example in the thing that is to be the burden of this letter, namely: The Sunday work of the drug stores. We have I believe, six drug stores, and all of them remain open all day long on Sunday, the same, or practically so, as on any other day of the week, and each one has on duty two or more men through the hours in which Sunday School and other church services are being held in our churches.

I have been told that this is largely due to the demands of the people. Many of them Christians, who without thinking are giving orders on the drug stores on Sunday morning for things that could just as well have been gotten on Saturday, or that could wait without inconvenience till Monday.

Does it not seem unreasonable that an agreement might not be reached by the drug stores of our city to all close on Sunday, at least for the hours between 9:30 a. m., and 1 p. m. If there should be a case of sickness during that time so urgent as not to be able to wait, then the doctor and not the drug store is needed.

Christian people, there are some 15 or 20 men and boys engaged in this work on Sundays who had just as well and a great deal better be in Sunday School. I expect every Sunday School in the city would be benefited and reinforced if the above suggestion could be carried out.

Would you enjoy having this charge against you, that you are in the least to blame for this condition? Would you feel good to have it said, "I must keep open or my customers will trade elsewhere?" And then I understand there is a young army of men in grocery stores on Sunday mornings up till ten o'clock. There can be no justifiable excuse for a custom that works our fellow man in this sort of way.

Let's awake to the condition of our demands, and if we find they are as outlined above, then let's face about, and demand of the others of the public and these storekeepers, that they be allowed to conduct their business along lines laid out by Divine methods, and especially in regard to resting one day of the seven.

A. D. JUSTER.

HOW COLD AFFECTS

THE KIDNEYS.

Avoid taking cold if your kidneys are sensitive. Cold congests the kidneys, throws too much work upon them, and weakens their action. Serious kidney trouble and even Bright's disease may result. Strengthen your kidneys, get rid of the pain and soreness, build them up by the timely use of Foley Kidney Pills. They will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more.

A GAVEL OF MUCH INTEREST

Will be Made From a Tree Planted by "Old Hickory," Andrew Jackson.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 5.—The gavel to be used by the Southern Commercial Congress in Nashville, April 8 to 10, is being prepared by the Ladies' Hermitage Association. It will be made of hickory from a tree planted by "Old Hickory," Andrew Jackson, when he erected the tomb to his wife, in Nashville.

The Nashville meeting of the Congress comes just one hundred years after the outbreak of the War of 1812, in which "Old Hickory" took such valiant part and just fifty years after the Battle of Shiloh, in Tennessee. During each of the years, 1911 to 1915, special gavels will be used by the Southern Commercial Congress, as its great meetings are intended to emphasize the contrast between conditions of today and conditions of earlier days.

At Atlanta, last March, the gavel used by the Congress typified a new union of the South, there being in the head of the gavel sixteen pieces of wood, each piece contributed by the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State represented and all the pieces together grouped around a piece from West Virginia, the state that was formed out of the crash and distress of the war between the states. The handle of the gavel was made from a piece of an elm from the White House grounds in Washington, the tree having been planted by John Quincy Adams, the New England President.
